

SESTADISOPRA

Dear est Friends,

We have finally reached the end of the year and we would like to take this opportunity to send you our warmest, sincerest and best wishes for a Happy and Healthy 2006. Some news from Montalcino, where we have had the pleasure to meet many of you and for others who haven't had the opportunity to come visit our beautiful facility, we extend a warm invite to you.

*"come novelli Cincinnato,
"ritemprati cittadini,
"felici umani.*

2005 began with promising prospects for a successful year: abundant rains in the spring and optimal average temperatures, comparable to those in the best past seasons, resulted in a high grape quality which promised an exceptional harvest. Unfortunately, persistent rains in September partially compromised the harvest, like spots on a leopard, and forced us to carefully scrutinize the grapes, so as to select only the best ones in order to preserve the excellent grape quality. Therefore, we have had to review and revise our production estimates.

From February 24th to 27th, to Montalcino, Sesta di Sopra will participate in "Benvenuto Brunello", a traditional event. During the event, Sesta di Sopra will present "Brunello 2001" (vintage year classified with 4 stars) and Red the 2004 (vintage year classified with 5 stars) to journalists and sector specialists. For those of you intending to participate, we look forward to seeing you there!

Other news from Sesta di Sopra: We have had the honor of being classified by "Wine Spectator" for our "Brunello 2000 with 92/100, following a "blind taste testing" led by James Suckling, placing us among the most promising and upcoming producers.

In addition, "Gambero Rosso" review has assigned to us "two red glasses" for our Brunello 2000, confirming last year's results. In addition these classifications, which of course are important for a start-up winery like ours, we are also proud to receive so many compliments from enthusiastic clients who confirm that the road we have taken is the right one: tradition and quality!

Merry Christmas and Happy New Year from all of us at Sesta di Sopra.
